ADVISORY ACTION

NOTE: in response to the remarks dated on 09-02-03, applicant first argues that "... modification of the Provence case become larger... would make that nestability feature of the Provence invention relatively pointless". Applicant further argues that "why would one of ordinary skill in the art abandon the advantage of the Wachs container ... can hold more covers more compactly". To answer applicant's argument above. The examiner likes to ask applicant: Why are you using Sherman type of holder, why not just use Provence's or Wachs's holder?
